

Name :- Namrata. P. Bhagne

Class :- BCA IVth Sem div "A"

Subject :- English

Roll No :- 171

To places to travel in India and why

J Kerala :-

The Southwestern state of India known as Kerala is a place of tropical beauty. palm trees, white sand beaches and eco-tourism are all big reasons to explore the region. Besides it's famous backwaters, elegant houseboats and temple festivals, Kerala is also home to thekkady, a tiger preserve which allows you to admire flora and fauna without crowds.

why to :-

- * Dutch places
- * the Portuguese palliparam road
- * Hindu Thrikka Temple
- * the hub of Kerala is the City of Kochi, where you can see the local fishing industry thriving along with modern high rises and colonial architecture.
- * Kochi is ethnically and religiously diverse
- * In single afternoon you can explore a Jewish Synagogue.

Agra:-

Agra is one of the most visited cities in all of India. Once the Capital of the Mughal empire, Agra is now home to the iconic structure known as the Taj Mahal, the white marble mausoleum was built in the 17th century and it is widely regarded as a monument of love.

why:

While spectacularly beautiful, the Taj Mahal can be very crowded, especially seeing in Agra is the Agra fort, which is very similar to the Red fort of Delhi. you can also visit 16th century ~~fort~~ ~~fort~~ ~~places~~ the interior of its beautiful

3) Varanasi :-

With a history dating back to more than 3,000 years, Varanasi is one of the world's oldest living cities. Located in North India on the banks of the River Ganges, Varanasi has been an important center of learning for ages as well as a chief pilgrimage site for many Hindus.

Varanasi is regarded as a sacred city among Hindus, Jains and Buddhists because it is believed that dying here severs a person's soul from the cycle of rebirth, and that bathing in the river Ganges purifies one's sins.

- * Varanasi offers sights and experiences unknown anywhere else in the world.
- * It is nicknamed the "City of Temples" because it's thousand of temples.
- * Most famous sites of the city are the ghats.
- * The best way to see the ghats is by taking a morning boat ride.
- * At sunrise, yoga, shaves and massage are other activities available here.

4) Rajasthan :-

Northwest India's where you'll find the state of Rajasthan, which borders Pakistan and is home to the Thar Desert. Whether you're interested in Rajput history or views of the Aravali's mountains, Rajasthan contains some of the best places to visit in India. Jaipur, or the pink city, is the capital of Rajasthan and a wonderful place to begin your trip.

why :-

- * It is home to an array of incredible architecture, including three forts,
- * many temples and extraordinary City palace
- * Also in Rajasthan and worth visiting is Jodhpur, the so-called Blue City (that's the home to the Spectral Mehrangarh fort).

5) Ladakh :-

In northwestern India, in the heavily disputed Kashmir region is the mountainous destination of Ladakh. The region is large but it has a low population density and a number of nomadic residents. Based taking, pristine scenery is a major draw to area, but probably all tourists will also spend time in the town of Leh.

The town is located at very high elevation, and it is also to the 17th century palace of the King of Ladakh.

Buddhist culture is also prominent in Leh, and you may wish to explore some of the many Buddhist monasteries and temples in the old town.

⑥ Coorg :-

Surrounded by majestic mountain ranges boasting a lush green landscape, Coorg or Kodagu is yet another blessed hill station worth the hype. This hill station is in the state of Karnataka and a popular weekend getaway of nature lovers and solace seekers. From lush green hills and sparkling streams to quaint villages and vast expenses of Coffee and Spice plantations, the charm of Coorg is unmatched. Since Coorg enjoys pleasant weather year-round, it is a popular destination for people in Bangalore who are looking to escape the city chaos.

Best places to visit in Coorg :-

Abbey Falls, Raja's Seat, Shri Omkreshwara Temple, Government museum madikeri, Raja's Pumb, Talakaveri Madikeri Fort, Hogenakkal Kere Lake, Nandikodam Monastery.

7) Manali :-

Situated in the Kullu valley of Himachal Pradesh, Manali draws tourists with its natural beauty and tranquility. The hill station is frequented by travellers from across the country who find one of the highly renowned vacation places in India, especially during the scorching heat. Snow capped mountains, dense forests, riverine valleys, and streams add to the beauty of the hill station and make it one of the most popular holiday destinations in India. You can engage in thrilling adventure activities here for a memorable vacation.

Best places to visit in Manali :-

~~Mani Temple, Hidimba Devi Temple,体现 of Himachali Culture and folk art, Jogini falls, Himalayan Nyampta Tibetan Buddhist Temple, Naldehra Kund, wall road.~~

③ Lonavala and Khandala :-

perched at a height of 622 metres above sea level, Lonavala and Khandala are twin hill stations on the slope of Sahyadri. Thanks to their pleasant weather condition and proximity to Mumbai and Pune, the hill stations are frequented by tourists and tourists year round.

Both Lonavala and Khandala come to life during the monsoon season when lush greenery, sparkling lakes and misty-white waterfalls add to the beauty of the landscape. Stations are quite popular among adventure enthusiasts.

~~Best places to visit :-~~

~~Tiger's leap, Rajmachi fort, Ruby valley, Lohagad fort, Bhigwadi Dam, Visapur fort, Tikona fort, Narayan Dham Temple.~~

③ Shillong :-

Known for pleasant weather conditions and picturesque locations, Shillong in Meghalaya is one of most visited yet highly frequented tourist destination in India. The hill station is popularly known as Scotland of the east, thanks to the rolling hills, gushing waterfalls and lovely landscapes that reminded European tourists of Scotland. Shillong also boasts Crystal-clear lakes, with mountain peaks and amazing golf courses, restaurants and cafes. What's more, the districts culture, delectable local cuisines and vibrant shopping hubs promise a fun-filled vacation.

~~Best place to visit :- Umiam lake, Elephant waterfalls, Shillong peak, Cathedral of many help of Christians, police Bazar Dou Bosco Museum, Sweet falls, phen Nongkird park, Spread eagle fall, holly Heydon park, Sophipet Aborigines~~

③ Shimla :-

Located in Himachal Pradesh at a height of 2276 metres above sea level, Shimla has been attracting tourists for decades. The hill station was the summer capital of British India and so the Shimla Colonial architecture. Shimla witnesses nature lovers as well with its snow-covered mountains, rolling valleys, and beautiful lakes. It is also home to UNESCO world heritage site - Kalka Shimla train route, which offers dramatic views of the surrounding hills and villages. You can also enjoy adventurous activities like relish local delicacies in the cosy restaurants, cafes and hotels in Shimla.

To visit in Shimla :- Mall road, Kufri, Jakhu temple, Chail, The Ridge, Church, Narkanda, Hindleyan Bird Park, Amritnagar, Himachal State museum, Theog, Kali Bari Temple.

10 Darjeeling :-

A poised jewel in the Himalayan Range, Darjeeling is the perfect getaway for nature lovers & offering stunning views of world's third-weighted among summer travellers and is among the best holiday destinations in India. It is surrounded by emerald-green slopes of tea is home to some beautiful botanical gardens, monasteries, parks and vantage points.

Places to visit :-

~~place~~
Nightingale park, National park, Padmaja Naidu Himalayan Biological park, happy valley

Tiger hills, Batasia loop

Rock garden, Singalill

peace pagoda

Himalayan Zoological

valley tea estate